ATTENTION: Internet marketers, affiliate marketers, work from home professionals, or anyone trying to create high quality ecovers and failing at it... ..

"Now there's a 1-2-3 fast & easy way for you to create professional 3D ecovers in 7 minutes FLAT... Even if you don't have web or graphic design skills!!!"

Instantly Increase the Sales and Downloads of any Digital Product!

When you personally are considering the purchase of an ebook or some type of downloadable software, what are your questions? Probably...

- Is this site trustworthy?
- Is the book/software any good?
- Is this person a professional?

What do you think if the site is homemade? You're not likely to give that person your hard earned money, are you? Well, when prospects visit your Web site, let them feast their eyes on a three-dimensional image of your e-product. A professional ebook cover or software package answers YES to all 3 of those questions.

Mark,

"Awesome Product!!!! I looked at several software packages before investing in your product and they can not compare. I was producing covers in seconds WOW! I even identified other streams of income by using the same product in other solutions. I am so excited and can't wait to produce more money making products."

Increased Sales From Higher Perceived Value!

Professional ecovers make your site and your product look trustworthy. They give the perception that your product and company are of expert-quality. They increase your sales and downloads. Why? Because even if your product is truly the best on the market, poor packaging gives visitors a perception that it's homemade. Would YOU buy a product that looked like it was made by a 14 year old high school kid in his parent's basement? Me either!

"The designs I made with your new templates are just as good, if not better, than anything that I have ever paid $99. for in the past. I will recommend your new website with my highest regards to anyone in need of a product such as this, and I will do so knowing that it is absolutely the best, and most affordable program of it's kind out there." Hot eCover Graphics Add POWER To Your Personality!

Buyers operate emotionally, not logically. Most buyers are depending on their senses more than their sense. Professionally designed covers are the greatest tools you can use to appeal to the emotional aspect of a buyer.

Hot ebook cover graphics impress buyers. They entice them. They encourage them to open their wallets by showing them what they're getting. Yes, your sales message tells them all about it, but when they see your product on the screen their emotions are satisfied. They are now in a position to buy.

With all the scam artists on the Net these days, professionalism is the key to making more sales.

I've created a whole archive full of hot ecover graphics amounting to more than 700 in number! Every month, I add on new ones and keep building the size of this archive so that you can never run out of choices!

And no, I'm not talking just any set of boring ebook and software covers. I'm talking the whole enchilada, the..., the...the whole stuff. Ready and waiting for you, all you have to do is gain instant access immediately.

Once inside, you can immediately start to turn out unique and killer covers most Net marketers have never seen or even been privileged to use! You get all these updates, free for a lifetime!

"Normally, it can take me hours to create a template and here you go... creating hundreds for me to choose from. I now simply copy and paste an image from the members area, add my own text using Paint Shop Pro or CompactDraw and within minutes -- I have a completed ebook cover." Eva Almeida works for the popular site eBooks N' Bytes. Click here to read about the other features that have helped her.

Inside my archives, I've prepared covers for products like...

- The ever popular ebooks! Many e-book authors end up tearing their hair out in despair, when they just can never get the right ebook covers they truly want for their written masterpiece! It's frustrating, I know. That's why inside, I've packed my resources archives solid with just the kind of look and feel suited for every type of e-book authors want and need!
- Downloadable software packages! The most sought after resource on the internet (right after information and information products). If you offer downloadable shareware, freeware and pay-to-use software, you are in high demand. I haven't left you wanting! With what you'll find in my resources archives you'll never need to worry about the kind of software box to use again. Attracting potential prospects or clients to your software products is as easy as pie!
- Data and music compact disc packages! The need for the best look and feel for CD products is exploding by the day. People don't just want to hear that they get your CD sent to them via mail. Studies have shown that well over 80% of prospects want to see a good representation of your CD. They want to virtually touch and feel your product before they even consider taking a look at your offer. I've taken care of that as well. CD product package owners... you will never need to look further than my cover templates!
- Electronic magazines and on-line or off-line newsletters! This one goes without saying. Everywhere you look today, there's a free or paid newsletter wanting you as a subscriber. If you're an ezine or newsletter owner, then you already know that having a strong USP is not always enough to pack in those crucial subscribers. Give your prospects something to feast their eyes on. Now you can stand apart from the crowd online or off!
- Finally, Custom covers! These include covers made for the most popular affiliate programs, e-books, and digital products. The best part is that once you gain instant access to my archives, you also get a secret email address that delivers your message straight to me. If you ever find you're in need of a custom look I haven't produced yet, all you have to do is email me at the secret address. Then tell me what kind of custom product you have in mind, and I'll get right on it immediately - at NO extra charge!

"Mark, first, I must say... Bravo. This software is brilliant, and so easy to use. I love it! I was able to create a whole new look to my product purchase page in about 30-minutes, and that was after downloading and using the program for the first time. I am just so thrilled with this product that I'm trying to exercise caution of going over-board pasting new graphics all over my site. Thanks (again) for solving my needs and providing me with your great follow-up service."
